

Andrew Kerr Sailing Clinic Fidalgo Bay, Anacortes April 30 - May 1, 2010

The Anacortes Yacht Club and One Design Plus are co-sponsoring an Andrew Kerr Racing Clinic in Anacortes April 30 and May 1, 2010.

Kerr is a unique combination of great sailor and great coach with a 27 year history of racing seminars given all over the world. On the sailing front, Andrew and team Disaster Area won the 2009 Santana 20 Nationals in another close fought battle. He was the head instructor at J World in San Diego for over a decade. His clinics are terrific.

Friday evening April 30, 2010 Andrew will present a "chalk talk" at the Anacortes Yacht Club, 504 7th Street, Anacortes, WA 98221 starting at 7:00 PM.

Saturday, May 1 will be on the water, with Andrew conducting a series of racing drills with his video cam and commentary running. The video will form the basis for discussion back at the club Saturday afternoon.

On Sunday, May 2 the Anacortes Yacht Club will be hosting its annual Hein Bank race, a long distance event open to PHRF rated boats. Entry into this event is included with the seminar.

All one design boats, keel and centerboard boats, as well as PHRF boats are welcome. The cost is $50.00 boat for PHRF rated boats; $30.00/boat for dinghy and centerboard boats and $15.00 for individuals (no boat) The limit of boats on the water will be about 15 so early registration is highly recommended. Attendees are responsible for supplying their own food.

If you are interested in participating you can register on-line using the AYC on-line registration system at www.anacortesyachtclub.com. For additional information please contact:
